

Cabernet Sauvignon

Region: Langhorne Creek, South Australia
Country: Australia
Vintage: 2004
Grape Variety: Cabernet Sauvignon 100%
Type of Closure: Screwcap
Alcohol Level: 15%

Tasting Notes

Flavours of blackberry and boysenberry are complimented by some spicy cloves and eucalypt. The palate is long, rich and full of sweet fruit and oak.

Cellaring Potential - 10 Years

Suggested Foods - Juicy lamb cutlets

Wine Maker - Rebecca Willson at Bremerton Estate

Reviews

“Intense, moody, classic cabernet here, with mint, spice and the swampy chocolate mudcake that rich, black alluvium produces. No other region in Australia does this. Yet it's still elegant, with cheeky athletic form, a touch of sooty wood and really good balancing acidity that makes that alcohol number look unlikely.

Grand Cabernet at a silly price, begging for juicy lamb cutlets.” 93 Points

Philip White The Advertiser, May 2006

“Intense, moody, classic cabernet here, with mint, spice and the swampy chocolate mudcake that rich, black alluvium produces.”

Hand Made wines from Hands on People.

